

Port Coquitlam Community Foundation Invites Community Members to Join Our Board of Directors.

We are a group of energetic community members dedicated to making Port Coquitlam stronger by connecting donors with causes that truly matter. Our granting programs support local groups that serve the people of Port Coquitlam. We envision a healthy and vibrant Port Coquitlam.

We welcome community members who are interested in or experienced in the areas of:

- lawyer or notary
- board secretary
- youth representative (16-19 years)
- advocacy and community connections
- fundraising
- gift planning and fund development
- marketing
- communications

If you are inspired to contribute your time, talents, or treasures to the greater good and greater future of Port Coquitlam, we encourage you to email us at info@pocofoundation.com for more information.

Please include a brief resume along with an introduction to you. We are interested in learning:

1. Why are you interested in the PoCo Foundation and serving on the board?
2. Do you have previous board service, leadership or volunteer experience?
3. What kind of skills, expertise or passions can you offer, and how can PoCo Foundation best utilize your skills or passions?
4. What do you expect from us for you to enjoy your experience as a board member?
5. Our board meets on the first Thursday of the month. We currently meet every second month. Are you able to attend board meetings regularly?

Please include your email and contact phone number.

Applications are due March 7th, 2022.

At PoCo Community Foundation, we are committed to recruiting a diverse board representing the community we proudly serve. Indigenous applicants, people of colour, all genders, LGBT2Q+ and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply. PoCo Community Foundation invites applicants from people who live, work or grew up in Port Coquitlam.
